The members of the Old Capitol Quilters Guild are pleased to present the 2017 Quilt Fest. We value this opportunity to

- ◆ Display the amazing creativity and skills of our members;
- ◆ Honor quilting as an art form and a traditional craft handed down over many generations;
- ◆ Educate the public about the value of quilts and the work that goes into making them;
- ◆ Highlight the community service we provide through our donations of quilts and other sewn items;
- ◆ Share our love of quilting and encourage more people to join the Guild — we welcome quilters of all levels, from beginners to experts.

About the 2017 Quilt Fest

Welcome

The Old Capitol Quilters Guild is please to welcome you to our 2017 Quilt Fest. The Guild holds a show of members' work every 3 to 5 years. This is the third time it has been held at the First United Methodist Church. We think you'll agree that it is a spectacular setting for the display!

All of the quilts displayed in the Sanctuary were made by a member of the OCQG. These items are not for sale.

Please do not touch any of the quilts. If you have a question about a particular quilt or want to see more of it, locate one of the OCQG members for assistance. They will be wearing nametags and circulating in the Sanctuary display area to help you.

No food, drink, or smoking is allowed inside the display area.

Special Displays

Red & white quilts. Two-color quilts, especially red and white quilts, are classic Americana! Quilt makers and needlework fans have gravitated to this color combination for generations. Many of the quilts in this display were created for a challenge held by the Guild in 2012.

Memorials to Priscilla Wright and Louise Wolf-Novak. Since our last show in 2012, two of our most active members have passed away. You'll find displays of their quilts at the rear of the sanctuary.

"A Quilt Is More than a Blanket"

This 4-minute slide show describes the effort and creativity that goes into making a quilt as well as the cost of materials and labor. We hope to give viewers perspective on the value—monetary and personal—of hand-crafted quilts.

Silent Auction

OCQG members have created more than 150 quilted items specially for this sale — everything from full quilts to small items like table runners, zipper pouches, and tote bags. Place your bid or choose the "buy now" option to take what you love with you right now! Proceeds from sales help support our educational and outreach missions within the community.

Children's Corner

Stop by the Children's Corner at the back of the church and let your child make fun take-home projects using paper and fabric.

Viewer's Choice Awards

Be sure to cast your ballots for the Viewer's Choice Awards. You can deposit your ballot at the front entrance or near the elevator entrance behind the sanctuary.

Gift Baskets and Door Prizes

Winners of the gift baskets will be drawn at 4 pm on Saturday, June 3. We will attempt to contact winners right away so they can come to the church to pick up their baskets before 5:30pm. If that isn't possible, we will make other arrangements for winners to pick up the baskets.

Participation in Gallery Walk and Arts Fest Fun Stop

The Old Capitol Quilters Guild is delighted to join in the Iowa City Gallery Walk on Friday, June 2, and the Iowa Arts Festival. Our "Fun Stop" will be open on Saturday, June 3, until 5pm, with creative activities for children. Special thanks to MidWestOne Bank for sponsoring our participation in both events.
